Returns

- Every Banestre painting is an original, one-of-a-kind artwork, carefully described and photographed.
- If your painting arrives damaged in transit, or you receive the wrong artwork, please contact us within 7 days of delivery with photographs of the item and packaging. We will work with you to arrange a replacement where possible or provide a full refund.
- As each painting is an individual piece of original artwork, we cannot accept returns simply because you have changed your mind or the painting does not match your décor.
- If you have any questions before ordering, please contact us—we are happy to provide additional photographs or information to help you make your decision. (bcw@banestrecraftingworld.co.uk)
